
Devon Rugby Young Leaders Academy - Fri 9th April

Posted by richard - 2010/01/25 22:30

From Devon RFU

Ladies & Gents

As part of the people and places programme, Devon RFU are holding a young leaders academy for anybody who is actively volunteering within Rugby Union between the ages of 13 and 20. This may include; referees, coaches, assistants, administrators, fund raisers, first-aiders and many more. Some initial ideas for what will be included on the day are attached.

The day is a progression for people who want to be involved in the vRugby programme as well as a pathway to the National Rugby Leaders Camp.

If you know anybody who you believe will benefit from the experience please could you complete the attached nomination form and return to Adam White at the address on the form.

Please forward to any colleagues who may be interested.

Kind Regards
